WAAE 2013 PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT CONFERENCE STATEWIDE COMMITTEE REPORT

1. Major accomplishments for the year.

Workshop on Healthy Eating

Milk Marketing Board Assistance

Did "Play it again 60" which challenged schools in nutrition and awareness

During PDC this year we are hosting morning walks at 6am

2. Goals for the upcoming year.

Redefining what the job description of an agriscience teacher is. Helping to provide teachers with this so they can learn to have a guide of what we should and should not do as part of a job.

Look at ways to identify mental health indications

Once we identify mental health indicators plan ways to do programing for our membership

3. Ways and means to meet goals for this coming year.

Have training workshop to help agriscience teachers to prioritize.

Encourage teachers to look at NAAE website, National FFA Program Success.

Several (four) times a year a message come from DPI and Wisconsin FFA or the WAAE Board, to take care of yourself.

Money needed for gifts. The gifts would be incentives to take care of yourself.

4. Number of meetings held (List times and places).

We meet twice at summer conference

We are encouraging active participation in our sub committee groups at state leadership workshops. (Single person departments, Mental Health, Job Description)

STATEWIDE COMMITTEE REPORT

5. Any other business or suggestions to the Executive Board?

Single person department

Message sent from teachers and management that you don't have to do it all

Look into the effectiveness of the mentor program

Workshop on how to say "No"

Mental Health

Have a speaker at PDC on Mental Health (Serious) And a speaker at Halftime that is maybe not so serious.

Job Descriptions: The message to teachers that more activities should be student directed rather than teacher directed. Also message 4-5 times a year teachers need to take care of themselves. Develop an emphasis on Education value rather than winning.

* Please return to Shari Graffunder (President-Elect) by Thursday morning. ****
